PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE FOR SPECIFIC PROPERTY

WHEREAS, on March 31, 2022, XIAOQING ZHENG, (“the defendant”) was found guilty by a jury of his peers of Count One of the superseding indictment in Case No. 19-CR-156, for which the government sought forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 1834 and 2323(b) and (c); and

WHEREAS, as a result of his conviction, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States any property used and intended to be used in any manner or part to commit or facilitate the commission of the offense of conviction, and any property constituting or derived from any proceeds obtained directly or indirectly as a result of the commission of the offense of conviction, including, but not limited to:

- a. $50,000.00 United States Currency;
- b. A Dell Precision Desktop Workstation 3600, serial number: 7QK0RW1;
and
- c. An iPhone X, white in a black case, serial number: F17VN3X5JCLJ.

IT IS NOW HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. The defendant shall forfeit to the United States all right, title and interest in the following specific property:

- a. $50,000.00 United States Currency;

- b. A Dell Precision Desktop Workstation 3600, serial number: 7QK0RW1;
and
- c. An iPhone X, white in a black case, serial number: F17VN3X5JCLJ.

2. Upon the entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General or his designated representative, is authorized to seize the property set forth above which is subject to forfeiture, and to conduct any proper discovery in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(g).

3. Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney is authorized to conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating or disposing of the property subject to forfeiture in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3).

4. Upon entry of this Order, the United States is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third-party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

5. The United States shall publish notice of the Order and its intent to dispose of the property in such a manner as the United States Attorney General, or his representative, may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the subject property.

6. The defendant shall not file or interpose any claim or assist others to file or interpose any claim to the specific property set forth above in any administrative or judicial proceeding. The defendant shall fully assist the government in effectuating the surrender and forfeiture of this property to the United States. Furthermore, the defendant shall take whatever steps necessary to ensure that clear title to the property passes to the United States, including the execution of any and all documents needed to effectuate the surrender and forfeiture of this property to the United States. If any third-party files a claim to the property, the defendant will assist the government in defending such claims. If the property, or any portion thereof, is not forfeited to the United States, the United States may seek to enforce this Order against any other assets of the defendant up to the value of the missing property, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p), the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act, or any other applicable law.

7. The defendant executed a plea agreement in this case in which he knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to any required notice concerning the forfeiture of the monies and/or property forfeited hereunder, including notice set forth in an indictment or information. In addition, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right, if any, to a jury trial on the forfeiture of the property and/or money forfeited hereunder, and waives all constitutional, legal and equitable defenses to the forfeiture of same, including, but not limited to, any defenses based on principles of double jeopardy, the Ex Post Facto clause of the United States Constitution, any applicable statute of limitations, venue, or any defense under the Eighth Amendment, including a claim of excessive fines.

8. Any person, other than the defendant, asserting a legal interest in any of the subject property may, no later than sixty (60) days after the first day of publication on the official government internet website, www.forfeiture.gov, or no later than thirty (30) days after receipt of direct notice, if any, under Rule G(4)(a), whichever is earlier, petition the Court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his or her claimed interest in the subject property, and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6).

9. Any petition filed by a third-party asserting an interest in the subject property shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the subject property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought.

10. After the disposition of any motion filed under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

11. The United States shall have clear title to the subject property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1) incorporating 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), for the filing of third-party petitions.

12. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(A), this Order shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing, or, where a written Plea Agreement has been entered, any time after the issuance of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture.

13. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(B), this Order of Forfeiture shall be made part of the defendant's sentence and included in the judgment.

14. The forfeiture of the property set forth above shall not be considered the payment of a fine, penalty, restitution loss amount, or any income taxes that may be due, and shall survive bankruptcy.

15. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).
